

TUSCANY

Baudains' top Tuscan reds: an eclectic selection (continued)

Petrolo, BògginAnfora 2011 17 (90)

POA Liberty Wines

From a top producer of Merlot, a new Sangiovese from old vines aged in amphorae. First impression of wild herbs on the nose, then sweet cherry and plum. Fresh and fluid on the palate with nervy intensity and a long mouthwatering finish of great length and purity. Personal, original, fascinating. Drink 2014-2016 Alc 14%

Richard Baudains is a co-Regional Chair for Italy at the DWWA and has written for the magazine on Italian wine for 25 years